COMICS VALUES MONTHLY

Attic Books, Ltd. P.O. Box 38 South Salem, New York 10590

Dear Comics Values Monthly Reader,

Gene Roddenberry's creation, Star Trek, has long permeated our society. Therefore, devoted fans, or Trekies, are now resolved to the quest for memorabilia. This has spurned the Trek Cons throughout the nation onto many highly successful ventures. The Star Trek mistique has spilled over to a new generation. The reruns on TV, along with videos, have helped, and the four full length movies also added to its popularity. The most recent, Star Trek IV, was released this holiday season and has done extremely well both critically and financially. This added more fuel to the fire. With inspired vision D C and Paramount Pictures created the Star Trek comic back in 1983. It started slowly, but now all of a sudden it's very hot. Prices are going up 20% across the board, with early issues hard to find. Some dealers think it can be the new G.I. Joe for 1987. All we can say is comic sales are growing fast. Watch the prices of Star Trek comics in 1987.

In retrospect, the comic industry saw a remarkable year in 1986. Marvel continued to create its ever popular X-Men and spin-offs along with the greatly popular G.I. Joe, but Marvel is now in a two man race. Brilliant moves by DC to lure John Byrne and Frank Miller to retell the stories of Superman and Batman have rejuvenated their line. National publicity helped all comic fandom. Many new comic shops are opening up from sea to sea to be added to other collectibles stores now in business with a direct and back issue comic line. Comic popularity is expanding throughout the world, especially in North America.

Yours truly,

Alex G. Malloy,
Editor

This publication is designed to guide comics collectors in the most current comics values. It is a tool along with other fine publications to assist collectors to enjoy the hobby. Also useful are The Comic Book Price Guide by Robert Overstreet and The Comics Buyer's Guide by Krause Publications.

The comics values listed are what a dealer will generally ask. Depending on a dealer's needs and condition of the comics, dealers will pay around 50 percent of these values for major and hot titles, and 30 percent or less for minor comics. These guidelines will vary from dealer to dealer and as to location.

VERY GOOD- A well read book. Minor markings, discoloration. Heavier stress lines around staples with minor tears or corner creases and spine rolling.

GOOD- A very worn comic with creases, minor tears, cover flaking appearant. No tape.

FAIR- Slightly damaged cover, badly rolled spine, cover flaking and possibly corners gone. Tears and tape are possible.

FUTURE PICKS

•Fallen Angels is selling very well all across the country. Once again, Marvel's X-Men spinoffs can't seem to miss.

•Aircel has a new hit. It's Warlock 5. All that we have interviewed believe that it is excellent. Art and story follow in the footsteps of earlier Aircel quality.

•Puma Blues is hot. Reports are that #1's are going for as much as $6.00 now. The newly released #1 2nd Printing will slow it down though.

•The Nam continued throughout the year to be the Marvel surprise of 1986. It's hot and the following is increasing through all age groups on a day to day basis. Now as we move into 1987, what will it do? We feel it will continue to surge upward in value.

•Two of the hot black and whites are Space Beaver and Grips-both have recieved excellent reader response.

•The blue and red Thundermace cover has now reached $50.00 with continued interest it seems to float up.

•The old standby black and white #1's continue to feel the force of demand and the prices continue to rise. Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles is up at $200.00, while Cerebus has risen to $450.00.

•Dark Knight's limited signed hardback edition is selling for $500.00-700.00 now. Wow!

SUNDAY COMIC PAGES II

Sunday comic pages have long been a collectable in the comics sphere. Only recently has full potential of their value been realized. Age is a prime factor, together with the title and the artist, when evaluating Sunday comics. The values represented below indicate Sunday comics in attractive readable condition. Trimmed down, stained, torn, or pages in generally poorer condition will bring a lower value. Superb quality pages will demand a higher value. The most sought after titles are the strips executed by the creator, the original artist thereof.

Tabloid pages will tend to bring a slightly lower value overall. A collector can expect to find pages in various formats such as one-third pages, half pages, and full pages. These varieties also appear in the tabloids mentioned above.

Special thanks is extended to Neil Hansen for his special research in preparation of this feature.

Most comics from the first year of production have a 30%+ value than any of the other years.

A special thank you to the following who helped contribute values for the Sunday Comics and the Sunday Pages-
